

Annual administrative objective of the National Property Administration in 2009

1.To Strengthen the allocation, management and utilization of national property to improve the efficiency in the use of national property.

a.Perfecting the information database of national property to facilitate overall planning and application.

b.Enhancing efforts to handle the real estates used by government agencies. Urging the agencies to consign the national real estates not necessary reserved for public use to other institutions from the public or private sector for construction purpose to improve the efficiency of the use of national properties.

c.Implementing a unified management mechanism of national assets to improve the overall efficiency of the use of national property. Implementing a unified management mechanism of national assets to improve the overall efficiency of the use of national property.

d.Assisting the administration agencies to perfect the management procedures for national properties.

2.Diversifying the use of state-owned, non-public used properties to improve management efficiency.

a.Flexible application of diversified land-disposition mechanisms to derive additional revenue for the National Treasury.

b.Release of state-owned lands to coordinate with urban redevelopment policies.

c.Restoration of the original landscape of state-owned, non-public used lands as the solution to problems of unauthorized cultivation and construction of state-owned lands, intensifying land-conservation and protecting ecological environment.