

Annual administrative objective of the National Property Administration in 2007

Promotion of efficiency in the management of national assets in order to increase treasury revenue.

1. To utilize a unified mechanism of national assets management so as to promote the whole operation benefit of the management of national assets.
2. To check unused, under-utilized and occupied national real estate in public use so as to promote efficiency in the management of national land.
3. To handle leasing, selling, consigned management and improving in the utilization of national non-public use property so as to supplement the national treasury and advance social-economic development in multiple releases of national non-public use land.
4. To revise national property laws and regulations, improve practical business operations, shorten disposal time; and to improve service measures to improve service measures to the public so as to promote service performance.